LINCOLN LEAGUE MEETING BRINGS FAVORABLE RESULTS

Republican Chairman Hays And Other National Party Leaders Denounce Lynching And Mob Violence.

Convention Favors Cutting Down Southern Representation. Resolutions Adopted. Wood And Lowden Speak.

By Associated Negro Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—The first annual convention of the Lincoln League of America held at South Park Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, stands as the most remarkable political meeting of representatives of our group ever held in the United States. More than 400 delegates, and several hundred visitors from thirty-three states of the union journeyed to Chicago to deliberate and take action on the questions of the day.

The significance of the occasion was heightened not only by the fact that the delegates and visitors represented without question the experience, culture, wealth and economic-political strength of the group, but by the appearance on the program of four national characters, two of whom are candidates for President of the United States. They were, in order of appearance at the convention: Will H. Hayes, chairman of the Republican National Committee; Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois; Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago and Major General Leonard Wood of the Central Department, United States Army.

The convention was called to order by Perry W. Howard of Jackkson, Miss., the attorney for the League, and one of the most constructive political leaders of the country. Col. Roscoe Conkling Simmons, president of the Lincoln League of America was introduced by Alderman Louis B. Anderson, of Chicago, and the big meeting swung into action, prayer being offered by Rev. J. W. Ribbons, of Tennessee.

It had been the purpose of the League to have former Governor P. B. S. Pinchback, of Louisiana, as one of the honored guests of the convention, repesenting the "old guard" of the times that tried men's souls, but Gov. Pinchback's health would not permit. There were, however many present who had come up through that period, and they were introduced to the convention, among them were Major John R. Lynch former Congressman from Misissippi, and for a number of years in the United States Army, as paymaster, and for a long time under command of General Leonard Wood; J. C. Napier, of Nashville, Tenn., former Register of the Treasury; W. H. Stewart, of Louisville, Ky., editor of the American Baptist; Scott Bond, of Arkansas, farmer and capitalist; I. F. Norris, of Seattle, Washington, former member of the legislature of Tennessee. These men, although yet active in the affairs of the race expressed their great pride in seeing the youngr men prepared to take up the active work of political and economic progress, and bade them Godspeed. Ralph W. Tyler, of Ohio, former Auditor of the Navy, spoke as a newspaper representative.

Southern Representation.

The first subject to be discussed in the convention was "Should Southern Representation be cut down?" While it was agreed that the final disposition of this important subject should be left to the resolutions, committee, the discussion was filled with dramatic moments when views from the various sections were expressed. The sentiment was overwhelming, however, for cutting down representation, at the earliest possible time, in accordance with the actual vote, as has been done by the National Republican Committee for delegates to the National Republican Convention.

The discusion of "Jim Crow" cars, was opened by Charles A. Cottrill, former Collector of Internal Revenue, Honolulu, H. I., a resident of Ohio. He was followed by James A. Cobb, former asistant District Attorney, Washington District of Columbia.

Lynching was discussed at length at the closing evening session by James Weldon Johnson, of New York, field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Mr. Johnson presented statistics concerning the lynching evil in this country that astounded his hearers.

All of the subjects before the convention were discussed at length by the able thinkers of the group in the country. It was very evident from the discussion that universal sentiment prevails among the people for action and results in the wrongs suffered at this time by the citizens. The discussions were remarkable for the absence of the feeling of anger and radical agitation except in so far as it was made plain that 15,000,000 Colored people are determined to get some kind of hearing before the bar of justice.

Simmons Uses Satire

President Roscoe Conkling Simmons presided at all the sessions of the League and introduced the speakers for the various topics under consideration. One of the striking features of the convention was the inimitable eloquence with which Col. Simmons presented the speakers, and this was particularly true of his introduction of the distinguished speakers of the other race. With ready and deep meaning satire, fact after fact with reference to the two groups dwelling side by side in the United States, was driven home. Probably one of the most effective expressions of Col. Simmons came after his description of how the white and Colored people have been joined by God in working out the salvation of humanity in this country, he giving a description of what each is doing, and then he added, amid great applause; "What God has joined together, let no man put assunder."

Resolutions Adopted

At the final session of the convention, Thursday night, the resolutions were read by Attorney Isaac Nutter, of New Jersey, and after a short discussion by various delegates on some of the points, were unanimously adopted.

Among the leading planks in the resolutions are:

The Republican Party is called on to condemn mob violence and bring the crime of lynching under federal supervision; The endorsement of woman's suffrage; The urging of Colored workmen to join labor unions were it demonstrated that there is no discrimination on the grounds of race or creed; The call upon candidates for Congress and for President of the United States to declare themselves on the subjects concerning which Colored People are most concerned; The urging of the people at large to contribute more liberally to the expense of conducting political campaigns; The endorsement of the League of Nations with the Lodge reservations; The Republican Party is accepted through which the League activities are to be carried on.

Hays Denounces Lynching

The first speaker Wednesday night was Chairman Hays. He launched into his subject with characteristic vigor, speaking straight from the shoulder on the things that he knows are uppermost in the mind of every Colored American. He denounced lynching as an un-American and un-Christian, and declared that in the matter of citizenship, the Constitution of the United States should be upheld. Mr. Hays made it very plain that the Republican party this year does not propose to sidestep the responsibilities of the hour, but will face all subjects with characteristic Americanism, for, he declared; "the history of the nation is the history of the Republican party." The address of Chairman Hays was received with great enthusiasm.

Lowden Avoids Vital Issues

Governor Frank O. Lowden followed. Governor Lowden took advantage of the occasion being on the eve of Lincoln's birthday, and the name of the League being "Lincoln" and confined his remarks largely to an eulogy of the life of Abraham Lincoln. His address was interesting from that standpoint, but the vast assemblage was plainly disappointd because he failed to make an open declaration concerning his views on the critical subjects concerning Colored people. It was very evident that the Governor studiously and carefully avoided these subjects, it appearing at times as though he was embarrassed to find just the proper words to use.

Mayor Thompson Scores Applause

Mayor Thompson's address was typical of his belief in political equality and opportunity. He reviewed his career as mayor of Chicago, and told how he had always sought to uphold the constitution in the city for the people. He told why he appoints his assistants on merit, and not by race, and was loudly applauded.

In the midst of the Mayor's address, General Wood arrived. He was given the greatest demonstration of the entire convention, Mayor Thompson discontinued his address for the time, and warmly grasped the hand of General Wood, while the audience applauded, and stood cheering.

At the conclusion of the Mayor's address, President Simmons introduced General Wood, of the United States Army, as a "personal friend to the great American who believed in 'all men up,' Theodore Roosevelt."

General Wood minced no words, nor did he lose time in making himself understood. His first words were: "I believe in upholding the Constitution of the United States, and that means that I believe the laws should be obeyed by all, and that all citizens should enjoy the privileges unde the constitution." He declared that the government stands first for law and order, upon which foundation only, can peace and harmony be maintained.

General Wood denounced lynching and mob violence as one of the most dangerous conditions, of American life, and states that every interest of every group in all parts of the country must work for the elimination of the crimes in order that the majesty of the government must be upheld. He states that democracy must mean democracy at home and for the individual American, and that this is paramount to the troubles of Europe, so far as America is concerned. He paid a tribute to the soldiers of our group, and then said; "The brave men of the Tenth Cavalry were with me in Cuba". Here and there among the delegates and other persons present were at least a half a dozen who arose and said: "I am one," the Geneal saluting each in order, while the audience cheered to the echo.

MO. REPUB. CLUB HAS MASS MEETING

Dr. C. H. Phillips Makes Impassioned Defense Of Citizens Liberty League Against Attacks Of Certain Speakers.

At the Lincoln-Douglas celebration of the Missouri Republican League Club last Tuesday night, Mayor Kiel, Chairman John Schmoll, L. C. Dyer and other city officials spoke.

The meeting was held at Louisiana Hall, 921 N. Vandeventer avenue, and was widely advertised as an opportunity to hear the city officials talk.

W. R. Hill, assistant city counselor, presided. I. H. Bradbury, chairman precinct organization.

Dr. Phillips Defends The Liberty League

During the meeting it developed that there were other purposes than the honoring of dead patriots by the assemblage. This was emphasized when some of the speakers made an attack on the Citizens Liberty League.

The last speaker, Dr. Chas. Henry Phillips, in an impassioned speech, declared that he was a Negro before he was a Republican; warned the audience to be not deceived by these attacks on the Liberty League, because it was an organized body of over 2000 staunch Republicans fighting for the civic and political rights of the Negro, not only of this city and state, but the nation as well. "It is not Demo[illegible]" he said, "neither is it Indepe[illegible], it is not Socialistic nor I. W. W. neither does it sympathize with the Committee of 48, but it is really Republican and thoroughly American, and being that, it would deny no privilege or right to any citizen because of his race or former condition of servitude. It is a militant body 'with malice toward none, with charity for all,' fighting for the Negroes' rights, begging no favors but praying simple elementary justice."

He was generously applauded.

CITIZENS ARE TIRED OF FUTURE PROMISES

At a meeting of the Citizens Liberty League, Thursday night, at the Pythian Hall, which was fully attended by members of that organization, the thought which predominated many of the forceful speeches made, urged the voters to give serious attention to Race solidarity, which is the only thing that will enable them to rise to their rightful places in this new day.

"Vote For Negroes When We Can"

One speaker said, "we want justice and liberty, and not future plans and promises. Resolutions in Congress, to erect monuments to our dead soldiers will be of no material service to us. We should not become weak or faint-hearted on the Congressman proposition. We should vote for Negroes when we can, and for white men when we must."

Warning To Political Traitors

"Time is coming when the Citizens Liberty League will take off the hide of Negro traitors. There is a self-determination on the part of our people that we must have representation in the City Council, legislative and congressional affairs," said another speaker, who voiced the sentiment of the big audience.

Dyer Appoints Sumner High Graduate As Candidate to West Point

Richard A. Jackson, colored, 19 years old, of 321 South Leffingwell avenue, has received notification from Congressman L. C. Dyer that he has been appointed principal candidate for West Point from this city, the examination to be held at Jefferson Barracks in March.

Jackson graduated from the Sumner High School last June, and was a member there of the Dramatic Club, debating team and basketball team. He is the son of Mrs. William Jackson, who was a slave at the time of the civil war near Brandenburg, Ky. Jackson has a brother, Wendell, 24, an instructor at Payne's University, Selma, Ala. Richard was in the service with the Tenth Cavalry on the border during the war.

There have only been two Negro graduates from West Point, an officer by the name of Alexander, of North Carolina, who graduated in 1886, and Col. Charles Young, of Ohio, a graduate in 1889. Col. Young now is military attache for this country in Liberia, Africa. Jackson, he said, is the first Negro appointee from Missouri.

GA. SHERIFF SAVES NEGRO FROM MOB

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 15.—Intent on lynching Andrew Jones, an aged negro, a mob of thirty men stormed the Evans county courthouse at Claxton early today, after shooting out many of the windows. But the negro's life was saved by Sheriff T. W. Rogers, who spirited him away and brought him to Savannah.

The mob gathered shortly after midnight, demanded the release of the negro, and when refused opened fire on the courthouse in which the negro had been confined. No one was injured.

Jones was taken into custody by the sheriff after having been attacked by two young men who accused him of turning in information as to "moonshining" operations.

DYER'S INDORSEMENT OF GOVERNOR LOWDEN FAILS

Negroes Raise Storm Of Protest When Congressman Declares Illinois Executive F or Presidential Candidate

At the convention of the Twelfth Congressional District of Missouri last Tuesday night, a clash between the Negro delegates and Congressman L. C. Dyer was settled only after he (Mr. Dyer) had withdrawn a resolution which he had introduced to instruct the delegates from the district to support Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, for presidential nominee at the National Convention at Chicago next June.

Mr. Dyer, after having lauded Governor Lowden as a great man and praising him for what he had done for the people of Illinois, and commending him for his stand for justice and fair play toward all, made a motion to instruct the delegates for Mr. Lowden.

This action brought down a storm of protest from the Negro delegates present.

J. E. Mitchell, editor St. Louis Argus, arose and told the Convention how Governor Lowden had acted during the East St. Louis massacre, and declared that the Negroes would oppose any move to indorse Mr. Lowden.

Mr. Dyer only made matters worse by trying to defend the Illinoisan, which was followed by some sharp questions from Mr. Mitchell, citing that Governor Lowden had failed to act when first appealed to, "and later" said Mitchell, "he must have been gone a fishing for he could not be found."

Mr. Mitchell was backed by W. G. Matthews and W. H. King.

The Power of Public Sentiment

(Associated Negro Press.)

Do you remember last year when a delegation from our group approached Senator Charles Curtis, urging his cooperation in demanding equal justice for all in the United States? Do you remember the sage advice he gave them? It is a happy minute to now recall it.

Senator Curtis believes in justice for all Americans, and has publicly proved to the nation, with splendid results, just where he stands as a servant of the people. But he talked to the delegation in words to this effect.

"You must understand, no matter how important or essential a law may be, it takes public sentiment to pass it, and nothing is accomplished without it. Go back to your homes and begin a campaign of making public sentiment for the things you desire."

Public sentiment has been aroused, and there are now, things coming to pass. The average white political aspirant is a pastmaster of the art of camouflage and dodging the issue. The traditional street fakir dodger of balls is a mere weakling beside them. When they wake up to the fact that they have to commit themselves on certain importance subjects, the will o' the wisp is a mere pet kitten beside them. The hottest subject in American political life is the Race question. Candidates from town constable to President get the Greenwich shivers when they think about it. This is all due to the fact that we have lacked two great things in our behalf: Organization and Public Sentiment. In this grand year of grace we have as our glorious allies both of these factors, and we have one thing more, money. With this combination, the time

"For which we long have sought,
And mourned because we found it not."

has come. it is here, hook, line and sinker.

There are going to be some embarrassing days in this grand old "land of the free," for some people, and they are not the ones on this side of the irresistible line. Until it is a matter of record, no theory or promise counts. We have our index card system, and our expert tabulators working full time and extra, and we are taking the exact measure of every living creature that has an atom of activity

We are going to be decent about the job, but we are going to be thorough and unabashed. Why should we not be? Even the new white South has said our cause is just. Can the white North, or any other power or principality say less? We have met every test of manhood to which a clever and cruel people could subject us, and we have never failed to measure up. We do not demand forgiveness for the past, nor do we appeal in the whining terms of a Race of helpless children, but we do want justice, and want it on the square.

We are called sentimental people. We are that, and our rich soul qualities are the saving grace of the American nation—in music, oratory, art and fidelity. But we announce to the world that in this cause of justice, we are intensely practical, upstanding and keen visioned. Governor Bickett of North Carolina, has told us to "appeal to the white man's conscience." We accept the invitation, but beg to announce that our records show that in many localities the silent guide to righteousness is seared with a hellish glue of hatred that drives away even the faintest echo of the "still small voice."

But this fact does not discourage us. Having bravely endured all things, and now that our day is here, and the curtain is up on our act in the world wide vaudeville, we cheerfully assume the small job of finding the white man conscience. We will begin, not with the hard nuts first, but those who even now show the possibilities of fair play, like the glories in the "opening of a chestnut burr."

Do you remember, as a child, how you used to watch the magic of "popping corn?" Do you recall how intently you watched for the opening of the first little grain into a beautiful white cottony bulb? Then there was another and another, until the whole popper was bulging with tempting corn. The is like our position in American life today. White friends, North, South—thank God for the South, East and West, are beginning to speak up and declare themselves on the cause of human justice in good old-fashioned American language that means just one thing, and others are following their example; and their words are being backed up with noble and unselfish deeds, and we are all getting a clearer better and more sincere understanding of each other, and we, on both sides, are discovering ways and means to adjust all differences, and, best of all, we are knowing that America is the country for all, and all of us are for America. Let the good work go on.

THREE DEAD AND SIX INJURED IN PINE BLUFF, ARK.

By Associated Negro Press.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 18—Three dead and at least six injured, one critically, was the toll taken in a shooting affray between posse men and George Vicks, a Negro who barricated himself in a house after he had killed a city detective, C. C. Lynn, late in the afternoon. The other dead are Vicks and Mrs. Sam Seitz, 65, a spectator, who was fatally wounded by a stray bullet while standing two blocks from the scene.

Officers abandoned a theory that Vicks killed another Negro before killing Lynn. No body was found in the remains of three houses burned at the order of officials in an effort to drive Vicks from his stronghold.

Vicks was killed by a fusilade of shots as he stepped from the basement of the third house burned. Previously he had shot and seriously wounded Deputy Constable Ed Mann and Ray Avery, twenty-four, the latter a spectator. Four other spectators were hurt by stray bullets and one boy may lose his arm.

This honor fell upon Rev. S. A. Moseley, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church of this city. This is the first time a Negro has ever been elected delegate from this, the Twelfth Congressional District of this state.

WESTERN CIRCUIT COLORED BASEBALL LEAGUE IS FORMED

Andrew "Rube" Foster Elected President. Big Shift In Players. St. Louis Loses Lyons.

(Special to The Argus.)

Kansas City, Feb. 17.—The Western Circuit Negro National Baseball League was formed in Kansas City last week and Andrew "Rube" Foster was honored with the first presidency. Any chance for friction went astray, for the formation worked like a well-oiled machine. The new league will open about May 1 with eight clubs, and will be incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois. In the awarding of players the St. Louis Giants lose Jimmie Lyons, a player brought out and made by Manager Charles Mills, and who has played in St Louis for ten years. It is said that Lyons received advance money from the St. Louis club in December, 1919, to play the season 1920 in St. Louis, and then received money from and signed with Detroit. In the shift of players Lyons was awarded to Detroit. Broken contracts will not be tolerated by the new league.

Foster, of the Chicago American Giants, has released his star pitcher, Whitworth, to Detroit, and Outfielder Charleston to C. I. Taylor's A. B. C.s, Indianapolis. Detroit gave up Donaldson, Mendez, Crawford and Rodrizgue to Kansas City. These changes place St Louis in a favorable light in the championship race.

The new league will give better protection for players as well as owners and will be an incentive for future investments in the national game by members of our racial group.

A large audiency witnessed the occasion. Rev. L. R. Banks was Master of Ceremonies. He asked the audience to bend while Rev. W. W. Perry read the Scripture lesson. Then followed the repeating in concert the Lord's Prayer, led by Mr. A. J. Wheeler of Pattison Ave. Baptist Church. Dr. S. A. Mosley spoke on Rev. Owens as a gospel minister. He stated how he had assisted the Rev. Owens in his early ministry in school and church and that he was proud of him as a true gospel minister. Dr. Howard H. Harris discussed Rev. Owens as a pastor, and as usual with his oratorical ability seemed not to have left a stone unturned relative to Rev. Owens as a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. In the absence of Dr. W. A. Venerable who was programed to have spoken, and on account of his illness, his companion, Mrs. Venerable spoke for him and the address was heartily received. Rev. Owens as a church builder for Christ was discussed by Rev. W. W. Perry, who said that Dr. Owens was a man of unique character, courage, patience and endurance; entering Galilee and finding only sixty members, and now, by the Holy Ghost, and the cooperation of the church has had an accession of more than twelve (1200) hundred members. Deacon A. Smith spoke on Rev. Owens as an organizer and promoter, then presented to him a solid silver cup, value $85.00, which gift was conducted by Miss Gray of Galilee. Trustee, John Pierce also spoke on the above subject and presented to him for another sterling silver cup value $35.00. Deacon J. W. Lockman, Supt. of S. S., Mrs. Della Smith, Pres. B. Y. P. BILLY ARNTE'S TRIO HEADLINES GOOD BILL AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

Billy Arnte's Dixie Land Trio is the headliner at The Booker Washington Theatre this week. The combination consists of Billy Arnte, Elmer Moore and Mabel Stines. Their bid for the favor of the audience is a lively comedietta entitled "Mr. and Mrs. Brown." It is a humorous domestic complication due to the distrust of a wife and the perfidy of a servant. During the action of the playlet a number of sprightly and tuneful specialties are introduced. Miss Stines is neat, nimble and sure and her dancing wins applause. Moore is the comedian and keeps the crowd screaming. Arnte as Mr. Brown is no high-flyer until his intricacies bring him down. There is plenty of good dancing and the finish is classy.

Dudley and Georgia Kelly have an act that does well to introduce Dude Kelly, one of the best buck dancers on the stage. He is demonstrating that a slice of his talent this week and gets a generous hand. Miss Kelly is a good entertainer and scores with an illustrative version of "Tame Wild Women." The pair have a whirlwind finish with fast dancing.

Bills and Nelson, a lone comedian, has a string of comic anecdotes and repartee he knows. His ability to keep the audience laughing is distinctly individual and he succeeds a hit. His songs are clever and well sung.

Max Hart, humorous ventriloquist and magician, opens the show with his manikin and a bag of mystery with wins applause and enlivens the house.

THREE STARS IN FEATURE AT JEST-A-MERE THEATRE.

Dorothy Dalton, Charles Ray and Louise Glaum are a combination of real stars who will be seen in Thomas H. Ince's big production, "The Weaker Sex," at the Jest-A-Mere Theatre this Sunday and Monday. Added attractions will be a Fox Sunshine comedy and Mutt & Jeff.

THEDA BARA AND WM. FARNUM AT THE CRITERION.

Wm. Farnum in "Heart Strings" will be the offering at The Criterion this Saturday. On Sunday Theda Bara will be shown in "Kathleen Mavourneen"; Wm. S. Hart in "His Honor of Manhood," and the last episode of Pearl White in "The Black Secret" will be run.

"THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE" AT THE PENDLETON.

Robert Warwick in "The Tree of Knowledge" will be the attraction at The Pendleton Theatre this Sunday and Monday. It is an absorbing story of the pernicious influence of a female sort and her final vanishing to one of her victims. There is a beautiful prelude in which Theodore Kosloff, the Russian dancer, and Yvonne Gordelle enact in pantomime the ancient legend of Adam and his fabled first wife, Lilith. The picture is a Paramount-Artcraft.

On Tuesday The Pendleton will show Ethel Clayton in "More Deadly Than Male." It is full of thrills, hair-raising incidents and tragedy, but abruptly ends on a delightful comedy drama.

The special feature at The Star Theatre Sunday will be "Down By Rio Grande," a picture full of border thrills, love and mystery. Other specials at The Star will be Theda Bara in "La Belle Russe," Monday. "Loot" on Tuesday. "Poor Relations" on Wednesday, and "The Trembling Hour" on Friday.

JACK DEMPSEY IN "DAREDEVIL JACK"

Coming To Leading Theatres On Market Street

"Daredevil Jack," featuring Champion Jack Dempsey in a serial of fifteen episodes of startling and daring adventure, will be shown in five theatres on Market street. The first episode will be run at the Olympia, Saturday, Feb. 21. Booker Washington, Monday, Feb. 23. Comet, Saturday, Feb. 28. Movie, Monday, March 8; Regina, Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13.

"Daredevil Jack" is a serial of action and suspense. It contains the greatest and most thrilling moments ever put into a serial. It shows red-blooded manhood and nimble wits triumph over ever-present evil. It shows a boy working his way through college—battling his way to wealth and fame, but not before he meets obstacles that would stop the bravest.

Here are the biggest surprises—the biggest sensations—the most spectacular thrills you ever saw, all concentrated in full measure in the serial dynamic—all focused in an-action adventure story of fifteen episodes that will stir you, thrill you and keep you interested. It is highly enjoyable entertainment built around a logical story.

It's a serial for women, children and men who admire grit, courage and red-blooded fearlessness.

BASEBALL

Now that the league of colored baseball clubs has become an assured fact, St. Louis fans have begun to discuss the sport as never before. All eyes are turned toward North Broadway and Clarence. The records of various star players on the league clubs are being compared and the local chances of high standing in the championship race are being doped out.

The contractors started on the local park Tuesday of this week. The owners are overjoyed at the get-together affair in Kansas City last week and feel now that they can afford to take a chance. An addition to the grand stand on Broadway and also on Clarence avenue, the lowering of all the box seats so as to give the fans in the stand a better view, dugouts for the players with shower baths in each, rooms, will be completed before opening game.

Sam Bennett, who has been a hold-out, has come to terms with the local club. With Kennard and Bennett doing the back stop duty the club has filled a big gap.

Business Manager Mills will release a number of men, as he has made up his mind on the make-up of the St. Louis club the coming season.

Stock Selling Fast.

Stock in the local club is selling very fast in fact a big surprise to the owners. Quite a number of the local business men are numbered among the first buyers. The younger men have taken a keen interest in the local club, which can be seen from the names on the Giants' stock-book. One good feature, the stock can only be bought on application.

Things have begun to take on an air of class around the headquarters of the Giants. All one can hear is baseball, with the hot stove league having the edge.

Mills promises in the next issue of The Argus to tell why our little favorite, Wallace, was made manager of the Giants.

BIG PRIZES OFFERED TO BASEBALL FANS BY ST. LOUIS GIANTS

$10.00 In Gold And A Season Ticket, First Prize. $5.00 In Gold And A Season Ticket, Second Prize. One Season Ticket, Third Prize.

Business manager Charles G. Mills offers the above prizes to any one naming the correct line up and battery order for the opening game of 1920 season. Write your name and address plainly, mail same to Chas. A. Mills, business manager, 102 North Compton. The winners names will be published in The Argus just prior to the opening game. Here is the list of men who will possibly make up the St. Louis Giants baseball Club:

Wm. Drake, p; John Pitmer, p; Al Luther, p; Daniel Johnson, p; H. Tyree, p; A. Williams, c; Dan Kennard, c; Sam Bennett, c; Chas. Webster, c; Tullie McAdoo, 1b; Lawrence Hill, 1b; Infielders: Sidney Brooks, Eddie Hall, Joe Hewitt, Louis Dunage, Jack Lewis, Ed. Richardson, Dick Wallace; Outfielders, Geo. Brown, James Lyons, Chas. Blackwell, Chas. Scott, Will Thomas.

The following men will act as judges of award: Herbert Meadows of The Argus; Ernest Patillo, banker; Homer G. Phillips, attorney; Wm. Banks, clerk.

Get busy. Who can tell who is the wise old owl. Mills is of the impression that the lady fans will win. Watch the prediction. No letters opened until week prior to open game by judges of award. Only three chances to any one fan.

There are 22 men under contract. The St. Louis Club will not carry over 16 players. Pick your favorite players. But, remember you must not be rule of the manager, club, the best club and men, regardless to friendship.

"THE MYSTERIOUS BRACELETS"--Prologue

Linked together by the closest ties of friendship, two prospectors, Miller Kent and Nevin, lifelong partners on the great Western Sahara, come to the parting of the ways. His love of adventure unselfishly put aside for his duty to his frail wife, Miller Kent journeys with her and their little daughter, Molly, to the earest Settlement while Nevin and the pride of his heart, his only child, Glory, continue on the long, long trail alone.

About to give up in despair, Nevin comes suddenly upon a great lake, hidden in the dark recesses of the mountain. Therein lies a treasure in rich oil. He hastens to register his claim, the number of which is 1 7 3 3. Stricken suddenly, he calls an Indian serving woman to his side and instructs her to fashion for him two bracelets; in one to inscribe the figure "17," in the other "33." These bracelets are to be identical. He places one on the arm of his little daughter, charging her never to remove it, and the other he gives to the Indian woman, bidding her search for Miller Kent and deliver it to him.

Later, the little girl, Glory, upon the death of her father, is adopted by a crafty man named Billings and the Indian woman, upon her deathbed, having been unsuccessful in delivering the bracelet into the hands of Kent, turns it over to the unscrupulous James Mesney.

NAT'L FEDERATION WANTS COLORED MEN IN CONGRESS

By Associated Negro Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 11—Incidental to the meeting in Philadelphia of the National Federation of Colored Organizations and Interests of America, the members were called upon to support a colored man as a candidate for Congress against Congressman William S. Vare, as well as Colored men for Congress in cities like New York, Chicago and Baltimore, where there are large Colored populations. The members were urged to ask for a member of the Legislature in every northern state and to run full tickets in the South.

The purpose of the meeting was announced as "to lay plans for better representatives of the Colored race in state affairs."

Dr. R. R. Wright, president of the Colored Protective Association of Philadelphia, in announcing the meeting said:

"I believe the best way to make good, law-abiding citizens of any people is to give them lively and intelligent interest in public affairs. I believe we should have a Colored man to go to the Legislature from the Seventh Ward and from the Thirtieth Ward, where the large Colored populations are. This is not a new thing, for Harry W. Bass, a Colored lawyer, represented the Seventh Ward in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg from 1911 to 1915.

Two of the greatest purifiers in the world are the sun and water, and on both depend life.

There is another great purifier—a purifier of the blood—known as Prescription C-2223. For years this Prescription was used by a succesful physician in his private practice. He found that this particular formula gave the best results to those of his patients who were suffering from some constitutional blood disease. In time this doctor made quite a reputation both for himself and the treatment which he used; today, thousands of bottles are bought each day by druggists to supply the demands of those in need of this meritorious preparation.

In the treatment of chronic rheumatism, catarrh, scrofula and other similar diseases of the blood, Prescription C-2223 has given relief to thousands. Despairing, helpless sufferers have secured benefit from this liquid prescription where all other advice and treatment had failed.

If you are suffering from a condition caused by bad blood, or you fear that the poisons and accumulations have never been eliminated from your blood, you should begin now and take the Prescription C-2223 Treatment. This liquid preparation contains no morphine, cocaine, strychnia, chloral or mercury; on the other hand it is composed of certain medicinal ingredients, all of which are well known to medical authorities as being very effective in the treatment of rheumatic and blood troubles. The very best materials and the greatest care are exercised in the preparation of this splendid treatment, so that you can be sure that if you follow the directions given as to its use, you will be greatly benefited, if not permanently relieved.

BRIGHTEN YOUR COMPLEXION

And Make Your Skin as Soft and Smooth as That of a Baby

What would you spend if you knew some beauty specialist could make your dark complexion many shades brighter, remove the blemishes and make your skin clear and smooth?

Money would be no object, for above all things you want to be attractive, to look your best. A clear, smooth skin and a radiant complexion are, therefore, of the greatest importance to you.

Long ago realizing the need of some preparation that would enable ambitious people to make themselves more attractive, skin specialists and chemists were put to work to perfect a compound that people could use at home to brighten their complexion.

After many tests and experiments, extending over a period of years, the Black and White Beauty Treatment was offered the public. This home treatment consists of Black and White Ointment and Black and White Soap. The Ointment is mixed and applied just before bedtime and washed off the next morning. It is both simple and safe to use and just as delightful as the many face creams and lotions.

Black and White Ointment alone will brighten your skin and remove pimples and roughness, but when Black and White Soap is also used, much quicker and better results are secured.

Black and White Soap is one of the best antiseptic toilet and beauty soaps made. It contains only the best of oils and soap-making ingredients which are known to soothe and cleanse the pores, keep the skin in a healthy condition and improve the complexion.

The Black and White Beauty Treatment can be found at most good drug and toilet counters, or one package of Black and White Ointment and a bar of Black and White Soap will be sent you, postpaid, on receipt of 50c.

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY introducing Black and White Skin Beautifiers among your friends and neighbors. Write Dept. 125 for money-making proposition and your copy of the Black and White Dream Book.

GARY, IND. HAS WORK FOR MANY HUNDRED MORE COLORED MEN

By Associated Negro Press.

GARY, Ind., Feb. 11.—The many men who work for the steel companies in Gary are jubilant over the fact that the new increase in wages just announced will benefit so many Race families. It is stated that the lowest wages which any man employed in the mills will now receive will be $6.00 per day. Many of the skilled and semi-skilled workers make large wages here, in some cases the heart rollers making $25.00 per day. This news which is being sent broadcast back to the South from which so many of the laborers have recently come, is expected to bring thousands of others of the Race to Gary, where there is now a Colored population of 6,000. It is said that there is a job waiting for hundreds of men at the present time. The David Glasck Realty Co., a half-million concern half of which is to be controlled by a group of Colored men of whom Attorney Wm. E. Hueston, of Kansas City, is the head, is straining every nerve to provide homes for the newcomers. This company bids fair to be one of the biggest commercial enterprises of the Race.

is suffering from foot troubles. It is said by her attending physician that a bone has been injured. * Sunday, Feb. 8, was a high day at Bethel A. M. E. Church, celebrating the 100th birthday of Richard Allen, the first bishop and founder of the A.M. E. Church. At 11 a. m., the occasion began with a sermon from the pastor, Rev. L. F. Sparks, and a brief history of the progress of the church, and the life of Bishop Allen. At 3 p. m. the 30th anniversary of the Allen C. E. League was celebrated. The program was well rendered. All addresses and topics, to say the least, were masterpieces. A large and appreciative crowd heard the last selection under the direction of Miss Dora Williams, president of the league, who has reflected much credit to herself and the community. * Mrs. M. J. Matthews is on the sick list.

MEACHAM PARK, MO.

The First Baptist Church had a glorious meeting last Sunday morning. The B. Y. P. U. had a wonderful lesson which was beautifully explained by Mr. Mullin. The Mission Circle presented Mrs. Fannie Johnson a silver set for having held the office as treasurer for nine years. * Those on the sick list are: Mrs. Cooper, Master Leroy and Harry Ming, Mrs. Edward, Mr. Joshua Cunningham, Mr. Woods, Mr. Wollery and grandchildren.

Last Friday evening, the Senior class of the A. M. E. Sunday School was entertained by its teacher, Miss K. D. Townsend, with a Valentine social and fully 32 young people were present. On entering, each guest was presented with a large red heart on which was placed the program of the evening and consisted of musical games and conversational exercises, the last named being a new feature, furnished a deal of enjoyment as did also the guessing games. A delightful two-course luncheon was served as follows: Meat loaf, cream peas in cream potatoe nests, pickles, hot rolls and coffee; Pineapple sherbert, assorted wafies. The color scheme red and white, was carried out with the refreshments. The guest of honor was Mr. Samuel Townsend of St. Louis, who was the guest of his sister, the hostess, for the week end. The young people expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the affair and all voted Miss Townsend an ideal hostess. On the following Sunday, the same Senior class presented their worthy teacher, Miss Townsend, with a beautiful Morocco bound teacher's Bible. The presentation speech was made by Miss Nettie Hughes. Miss Townsend takes this method of thanking her scholars for that necessary gift. * The sick of the city are somewhat improved. * Mrs. Emma Lambert has been released from quarantine of the influenza ban this week. * Mrs. Mary Brassfield and Mrs. Celia Mason are still on the sick list.* The young people of the Second Baptist Church met last Sunday afternoon to organize a Busy Bee club. At the same church, last Friday night, Rev. S. M. Arthur entertained a well filled house with a first class moving picture show, showing five reels, much to the great pleasure of the young people and as many older ones who could well attend. Those who missed it, missed a real treat. * The executive board of the Baptist Association and Ministers and Deacons Union and Executive Board of the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission department, will hold their meeting at Hely's Chapel this week.

NETHERLANDS, MO.
Mrs. Dora Yeager

To say that we are glad to receive the return of the Sunday and the sunny weather, would only be putting it mildly. You can easily imagine surprise to find the earth covered with a blanket of snow when we awoke on last Saturday morning. But thanks to the overpowering force of the Sun, it was only short-lived. * The startling and most pleasant news of the possibility of Netherlands being permitted two nights of enjoying a moving picture show, the great pleasure of the young people was greatly aped by the old. * We were all glad to welcome our pastor Rev. J. W. Lloyd back among us since his absence of at least two months. The meeting in the evening was as an added blessing. * Mr. David Yeager received the intelligence of the serious illness of brother, Mr. J. F. Yeager who is suffering from pneumonia. He leaves Sunday. * Those of the sick list are as follows: Rev. J. W. Catlin, Mr. L. Z Thompson, E. L. Clifford and their families are down with the "flu." Mrs. L. V. White, Miss Emma Russell, Mr. Brack Perry are also tied in. Mrs. Ella Burly is somewhat improved as we go to press. * The new three-months subscribers to The Argus for the week are Mr. W. M. Fletcher, Clarksdale, Miss., Mr. J. W. Sullivan, Amory, Miss.

FARMINGTON, MO.
By Daisy F. Baker

Mrs. Edith Cayce underwent a successful operation last week. A growth was removed from her nose. Dr. O. A. Smith was the attending physician. * Mrs. Mildred Overton and son, Melvin of Kansas City, are the guests of Mrs. Flora Bobbie. Mrs. Overton's visit to Farmington is always a panacea to her many friends. * Mr. Geo. Burns arrived from St. Louis a few days ago to recuperate from an attack of Flu. * Mrs. Mamie Cayce had recovered from a recent illness, but is now suffering the result of being subdued. * Mr. Chas. Douthit of Coffman has made the Argus a welcome member of his home for a year. * Rev. J. W. Baker conducted services at Coffman Sunday. * Mr. James Cayce is planning to accept a position at Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Cayce will remain here indefinitely. * Mr. Dave Buford and family have begun housekeeping in the residence of their sister Mrs. Mamie Cayce. The house is five or six doors from their former home. * Mr. Henry Amonette is having great success with his Buckeye Incubator. He is much interested in poultry raising. * The list of sick persons is yet too great to publish. * Schools reopened Wednesday with a decline in percentage of attendance owing to illness. * Mr. John Douthit is suffering a deal with his injured hand the the wound is healing nicely. * Mr. Elmer Amonette got his finger dislocated Monday while at work. * Popping the Question will be presented to the public Feb. 27. * Mrs. Jerushia Pentico has returned from a visit to St. Louis. She reports her daughter Miss Leslie's eyes very improved. * It's no nice to have to go home to your wife empty-handed when you have the Flu and don't feel like talking. HIGH WAGES

Give Wage Earners a Chance to Become Owners of Industry and Sharers in Its Profits

Union Electric's $1,000,000 issue of 7 percent preferred stock, financing growth of this business, is being sold largely to men and women wage and salary earners. They are taking advantage of present high pay to buy shares of ownership, and of profits, in the St. Louis district's electric light heat and power industry.

They are increasing their incomes by adding to their wages and salaries the earnings of their savings invested safely in an industry that pays a good preferred dividend rate, and pay it regularly.

Buyers of these shares have the whole St. Louis industrial district working for them. They own a real stake in the community.

The price is $100 a share for cash; $102 on ten-payment plan, under which buyers draw 5 per cent interest on installment payments.

ARTICLE XIV. CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Citizenship Rights Not to Be Abridged.

1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

DYER'S INDORSEMENT OF GOV. LOWDEN FAILS.

It was quite embarrassing for the Negro delegates who attended the Twelfth Congressional Convention to throw a discord into the very harmonious session that prevailed during the election of the delegates to the National Convention a few days ago in this city.

In offering a resolution to indorse Governor Lowden, we assume that Mr. Dyer acted in good faith and was ignorant of the fact that Lowden was objectionable to the Negroes because of the position he took during the East St. Louis masssacre. But he is guilty of the sin of omission because he could have so easily found out how the large group of his constituency felt toward the Illinois Governor.

The same thing is likely to happen on any occasion when the party leaders attempt to force upon the Negro men who may be objectionable to them for very good reasons.

However, such embarrassment should never happen and the safest way to prevent it is for the party leaders to take some representative Negroes into the party councils. Men whose hearts beat Negro thoughts and whose sympathies are in accord with Negro suffering. That is the one great reason why the Citizens' Liberty League is contending for representation in the party councils. The thoughtful among us race have foreseen the danger, and they are daily trying to help to keep harmony in the Republican ranks.

The party leaders think that the Negro will support any man whom they may select and call him a good fellow. But the time has come when the Negro shall refuse to support such men as Governor Lowden, regardless of who brings him out.

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENTS.

Following the session of the Lincoln League at Chicago last week, it has been announced that five Negro men have been appointed on the Committee on Platform of the National Committee of the Republican Party by Chairman Will Hays. In making this appointment, Chairman Hays stated that he thought it right and just that this particular group should be represented because "a more loyal group to the Republican Party cannot be found in this country, nor can a more loyal group to the Nation be found."

Such a statement, coming from Mr. Hays at this time, backed up by action, is quite encouraging to fifteen million Negroes in America. We are willing to leave the fate of the race in the hands of those upon whom this honor has fallen. And we look forward with fond anticipation that there will be a remarkable change in the status of the Negro in this country when the G. O. P. gets in power again.

State and municipal high officials of the Republican Party will do well to follow the example set by Mr. Hays and take a few Negroes into their party councils.

We haven't the time nor space to fight the Negroes who differ with our views. We think we are right and shall endeavor to convince the other fellow that we are as long as he will listen to reason.

Some people can well afford to stay out of factional fights. For an instance, the wife of the principal of our high school.

"In unity there is strength." Come, let us unite our forces for the common good of all.

Among the new strong recruits who have entered the ranks of the Citizens' Liberty League during the past week are Rev. George E. Stevens, pastor Central Baptist Church; Rev. J. K. Parker, pastor Pleasant Green Baptist Church, and Rev. Earl Dodson, pastor of Jones Chapel A. M. E. Church. The people are with the movement, and it is high time to let the people know where their leaders stand.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our sad hour, caused by the death of our devoted daughter Imella Boyd. Especially to Dr. Perry for his loving and consoling words. Also for the floral designs.

Gratefully yours,
MR. AND MRS. P. S. SCOTT.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear wife, Mother, who departed this life Feb. 28, 1918.

One year has passed,
Our hearts are still sore;
So sad and sudden was your call,
Too far away to say good bye,
It is so sweet to breathe your name,
In life we loved you dearly;
In death we do the same.

Sadly missed by wife, Anna Harris, and Daughter of Bakersfield, Cal.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our dearly beloved husband and brother-in-law, Mr. C. H. DeJoie, who died Feb. 19, 1918:

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Fond memory keeps you near us,
Though you died two years ago.

We often sit and think of you,
When we are all alone;
For memory is the only thing,
That grief can call its own.

Sadly missed by wife, Mrs. Lizzie DeJoie and Mrs. Marie Curtis.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear brother, James Preston Davis, who departed this life three years ago, Feb. 23, 1917.

We lost our darling brother
He had made us all adieu;
He has gone to live in Heaven,
And his form is lost to view.
Oh, that year one how we love him,
Oh, how hard to give him up;
But an angel came down for him,
And removed him from our sight.
The God who gave has taken,
And Heaven our brother has won:
Although our hearts are sad,
The will of God is done.
Heaven now retains our treasure,
Earth the barren casket keeps;
Lonely hearts will ever linger,
Where our darling brother sleeps.
Sadly missed by sisters, Misses Hattie and Mildred Davis. Mrs. Octavia Sargent.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for kindness shown us in the death of wife and mother, Bettie L. Eaton, and especially our rector, Father D. R. Clarke.

Husband, William Eaton; daughters, Cathleen and Nellie Eaton.

JUSTICE, IS THE KEY TO RACE QUESTION

Special to the Argus.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.—"The key to the whole question of the relations between the white and the colored races is held by the Southern white man," said G. D. Crawford, of Cornelia, Ga., chairman of the committee on race relationships, in submitting his report to the North Carolina Club of the University of North Carolina, which is the 1923 Bernard street, beloved mother of Mrs. Katie Porter and George Bohles, mother-in-law of Mr. John Porter, sister of Mr. Willie and Govan Smith, aunt of Mrs. Marie Skyles, Miss Irene' Rogers, Mrs. Parthena Busby and Mrs. Alberta Miller. The funeral will be held Sunday, Feb. 22, from South Galilee Church at 1 o'clock p. m.

"If there is one word which explains the basis of all hope in race relationships," continued Chairman Crawford in his report, "that word is justice. It is the supreme need of the race situation, justice in the court room, justice in education, justice in living conditions, justice in every detail toward the Negro. Social equality is not sought or demanded by the best type of Negros in the South, but without justice progress of any sort is difficult if not impossible."

The relation between the races is better in North Carolina than in any other Southern State except possibly Virginia, according to Dr. E. C. Branson. "The basis of the splendid relations that exist between white people and colored people in Virginia," he said, "is the fact that in Virginia more than in any other State the colored people own their own farms. So long as the Negro farmer is homeless, he will be shiftless. In Virginia 67 out of every 100 Negro farmers own their farms. In thirteen counties every Negro farmer owns his farm. Chapel Hill is another instance. The relations between white and colored here has always been, excellent. Examine the records and you will find that of the colored men above twenty one years of age, more than 50 per cent own their homes. The surest way to develop a sense of responsibility in Negroes is to help them get away from the tenant system."

Now, the country will comment on the results of the Lincoln League convention. There will be praise and there will be some criticism. There may be an attempt at a "rump convention" or two. The promoters of the League must be prepared for any event, and above all must make themselves worthy of the trust imposed in them by the people. Constructive criticism cannot be objected to, and should be welcomed, but petty fault finding is detestable, and should be avoided.

"I stand for the ROOSEVELTIAN SQUARE DEAL,

The application of American-ism in our government, upholding the constitution and rigid enforcement of Law and Order. In other words, America must be made safe for Americans."
